RED CROSS CALL

GOOD RESULTS IN COUNTY

Sudden Descent of Cold Weather Has Tendency to Keep People Home; Chairman Guy W. Brown Issues Appeal to County to Top Goal.

Memberships in the Red Cross in Connellsville passed the 1,200 mark in the canvass made Sunday afternoon despite adverse conditions, one of which was failure of a number of team workers to report. Not including some which were reported today, the total was $1,211.79. Connellsville township was not included in the foregoing, the business section, nor all the wards in the city.

The canvass will be continued until all territory in the district is covered.

Sunday added several thousand members to the Red Cross throughout the county. Workers were busy everywhere and in several sections an intensive campaign was conducted.

It was an ideal day for the Roll Call, as the weather was cold and the workers found people at home practically everywhere they called. This of course made the work much easier as it eliminated the need for a great deal of return calls, which is usually the case in any campaign. Workers also reported they were received kindly and that the people of Fayette county have a splendid knowledge of the work of the Red Cross and are friendly toward it.

One worker in the Uniontown district, Mrs. J. Arthur White, a member of the First Ward team, of which Mrs. Ray Fulton is captain, reported to headquarters that she had $425 and had covered all her territory.

Senator Guy W. Brown, chairman of the county Roll Call committee, has just sent a special letter to chairmen and team captains of the several county districts. In this letter he states:

"Tuesday, November 18, we start the second week of our Roll Call for members. Practically every section of Fayette county is now organized and working. By the time this letter reaches you every district will be under way.

"Reports to date are encouraging and the Roll Call committee is optimistic, but not over-confident, for that would spell disaster. Remember, we have to raise $25,000 if the Fayette county chapter is to continue the splendid work it is now engaged in.
That means every district will have to do a little better than last year.

"The people of Fayette county through the exceptionally fine publicity and cooperation of the newspapers, have been told of the work of the Red Cross. In the distribution of circulars and other advertising material they have received additional information. They know of its activities, have a kindly feeling toward it and are ready to join, but you or your workers will have to ask them. They are not coming to you and the campaign in your district is not completed until every adult has been asked to enroll.

"With a county population of approximately 200,000 the Fayette County Chapter should have 50,000 members. Can it be done? If every district chairman, team captain and worker says 'yes' it will."

Producers Co.
Closes a Good
Coke Contract

Evidences are accumulating that before the close of the year the coke trade of the Connellsville Region will approach nearer to normal than for more than a year.

The Producers Coke Company, which controls the output of plants aggregating 1,000 or more ovens, has closed a contract for 14,000 tons of furnace coke a month for the first quarter of the new year. Prices information as to the price has not been made public but it is understood to be $3.25 per ton, or 25 cents in excess of the ruling quotation for spot shipments.

In order to provide the tonnage called for by this contract the Century and Shamrock plants will be placed in operation toward the close of December so that shipments can begin promptly with the advent of 1925.

Bound to Elect Officers.

The Firemen's Band will hold a special meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the band room, at which time officers for the year will be elected. It is requested that all members be there.

Dawes Is Resting
Well Following
Hernia Operation

By United Press.
CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—General Dawes slept well and spent a comfortable night, according to a bulletin issued today at Evanston Hospital, where the Vice-President elect is recuperating from an operation for hernia. "The patient is doing nicely," the bulletin said.

While Dawes' physicians declared the case to be minor in character, they said the patient might be confined to the hospital for two weeks.
Dawes was operated on late Sunday a few hours after recurrence of an attack of rupture which had become evident six years ago when the general was taking his examination for army service. Mrs. Dawes remained at the hospital until her husband was put to bed.

The physicians gave orders that Dawes was not to be disturbed by anyone during his stay in the hospital.

GEORGE P. BARCLAY OF UNIONTOWN DIES
AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

George P. Barclay, 64 years old, well-known Uniontown man, died Saturday evening at his home at 29 Cou-nellville street, after an illness of less than two weeks from acute stomach trouble. He was stricken the day following election day while down town and had to be assisted home.
Mr. Barclay was born in Greene county May 27, 1870, a son of William H. and Martha Axford Barclay. He left that locality early in life, learning the sheet metal trade at Brownsville and then locating in Uniontown where he had been more than 10 years, conducting a shop at his home. For years he had done all the sheet metal work for the I. N. Hagan Ice Cream Company, and also was designer of moulds for making special and fancy forms of ice cream, his latest being a flask design used at the reception for Dr.
L. F. Arensburg, national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Mr. Barclay married Miss Mary Frances Snyder of Uniontown. The widow and four children survive. The children are: Nabel, who conducts a kindergarten in Uniontown; Thelma, a student at the Philadelphia School of Art and Design, and Ralph and Roy, students in Uniontown High School. There also survive two brothers, William Barclay, city electrician of Uniontown, and Norval Barclay, also of Uniontown, and three sisters, Mrs. Charles Cate, Mrs. William Chesney and Miss Phoebe Barclay, all of Uniontown. His parents are dead.
He was a member of the Laurel and Uniontown Lodge of Perfection, F. & A. M., and the Third Presbyterian Church.

The funeral service will be at the home Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.
Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery.
The service at the grave will be private.

Great Grasp of Military Affairs Would Make Him Suitable,

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—General John J. Pershing has been urged upon President Coolidge for appointment as secretary of war in event John W.
Weeks carries out his reported intention to retire from the Cabinet, it was held today.

His friends put him forward as a logical successor to Weeks because of his grasp of the duties of the office and because it was felt the appointment would be a fitting reward for his long service. Pershing has let it be known he would accept if the post were offered him.

The appointment of Pershing would not be in violation of precedent, in spite of the long-observed rule that a civilian should head the War Department. Generals Grant and Sherman each served as secretary of war.
Grant in 1867 and Sherman in 1869.
Both were generals of the Army and both were the outstanding commanders in a recent great war.

Supporters of Pershing for the post point out that his one way can be given an opportunity to complete the national defense plan on which he labored between his return from France and his retirement.

EX-SERVICE MEN
DELAYING ACTION ON THEIR BONUS

Less Than One-Fourth in Third Corps Area Have Filed Applications.

NEGLECT MAY BE COSTLY

Special to The Courier.
BALTIMORE, Nov. 17.—With a view to stirring ex-service men to action with respect to applications for their bonus, under the law passed at the last session of Congress, the following statement has been issued by Headquarters Third Corps Area, United States Army:

"The ex-service men are putting off until tomorrow the thing they should do today. Of 4,500,000 entitled to the bonus only about 1,500,000 have applied. All applications should be in the office Adjusted Compensation Branch, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., as soon as possible.
Payments and insurance will be issued in March, 1925.

"The important part of the law is that if an ex-service man dies before filing his application the amount of cash equal to his adjusted service will be paid his dependents. If his application is on file the face value of his certificate will be paid to his dependents. This is a difference of approximately $1,000. So it is to the advantage of ex-service men to fill out their applications at once.

"The examiner of claims, Veterans' Bureau, is a case in point. He could have made his application in five minutes. He did not. He put it off until tomorrow. One morning he was taken with a chill, brought home, in two days he was dead. His wife will draw about $600 distributed over a period of about four years. Had he filled his application she would have drawn $1,500 cash on January 1, 1925.

"Mortuary tables give the expected death of World War veterans at 2,000 per month.

"The Adjutant General in Washington can take care of 30,000 applications per day. He does not receive 5,000 per day. Now is the time for every man to do his duty.

"There are over 300,000 men in this corps area entitled to the benefits of the bonus bill, not one quarter of them have filed their applications.

"Any American Legion Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Organized Reserve, National Guard officer, Army Recruiting man, Adjusted Compensation Branch, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., or his office will gladly supply any information the applicant desires."

IN THE HIGH SCHOOL
In connection with Education Week, Constitution Day was observed in the Connellsville schools today. E. C.
Higbee, as a representative of the Fayette County Bar Association, addressed the students of the High School at chapel, and in grades throughout the city teachers made reference to the occasion in connection with the regular studies.

Parents, relatives and friends of students in the schools are invited to attend sessions at any time during this week and a number of visitors took advantage of that opportunity today.

In connection with the address of Attorney Higbee at the High School, two papers also on the Constitution, were read. One was by Edgar Swartz-welder and the other by Margaret Dease. Both are members of the junior class.

all persons should marry," Rev.

Miss McCahan's Article in The Courier Theme of Sermon By Rev. E. H. Stevens Sunday

Her Article and Others Sign of Greater Interest in Religion, He Says.

"Why I Do Not Quit Going to Church," which was the title of an article by Miss Lillian McCahan, published in The Courier of November 8, was the sermon topic of Rev. E. H.
Stevens at the Sunday morning service of the First Baptist Church.

He complimented Miss McCahan in cordial terms and drew a striking contrast between the faith and spirituality of the article and the sneering cynicism and atheism in the article by Rupert Hughes, entitled, "Why I Quit Going to Church." Rev.
Stevens declared there is greater interest in religion at this time than most people are aware, one proof of which, he said, is found in the number of serious and thoughtful articles that are being contributed to the magazines on the subject. He gave a long list of contributions of this character, most of which show the increasing importance of religion in the lives of the people. Of the few articles which tend to disparage religion and the churches none has been more vigorously condemned than that by Hughes.

"He seeks to destroy all religion but offers absolutely nothing to take its place," said Rev. Stevens. "His whole article shows lamentable ignorance of the Scriptures, theology and every subject with which he deals."

Even more extended reference to Miss McCahan's article was made by Rev. Stevens in the bulletin distributed at Sunday's services. In this he said:

"Are you interested in the 'Go to Church Campaign' the Connellsville churches are trying to put on?" If not, read what Mr. Rupert Hughes says in the October number of the Commonwealth, and then study the reasons why a Connellsville girl, Miss Lillian McCahan, refuses to quit the church. Miss McCahan has the better of the argument. No one has a valid reason for quitting the church.
He may think he has, but if he examines his case seriously he will find the real reason for giving up the church is in himself and not in the church.

"There may be a few notable exceptions; but usually the man who once attended church regularly, was in sympathy with its program, tried to interest others in Jesus Christ and His kingdom, and is now hostile or indifferent to the church and its teachings, has something the matter with him, and he knows as well as his associates that he is not the man he once was. He has changed, and the plea is that he usually has not changed for the better."

"As Miss McCahan says, 'How does it come that so many stay away from church? Because their vision has been clouded by hate and prejudice.
Because in their narrow-mindedness, their petty quarrels over things of no importance, they have lost sight of the real essence of Christianity.'"

"Every church attendance is a right to believe that if he helps in the support of the church, he is one of the great host of the world's finest people who are in partnership with Jesus Christ to win the whole world for God. Miss McCahan asks, 'Is it not worth while, to preach God to a forgetting world, to bring love where there is hate, peace where there is war, to lift the fallen and point them to a new and higher road, to give aid to the poor, cheer to the sick, hope to the despairing, and to teach them, one and all that in the religion of Jesus there is a peace and happiness for tired and troubled souls no earthly pleasures, no material wealth can give.'"

"No man can lightly quit the church so long as it is the meeting place of people who come together to worship God, and to seek the will of Jesus Christ whose programs affects every individual, every home, every problem of life whether political, economic, social, educational, religious, both at home and in our relations with all nations.

"The man who was once a churchgoer, and who is the worst of all quitters. He refuses to work with God. He accepts the benefits of the Christian religion, has the protection of Christian laws, the companionship of Christian citizens, and his support. If then in trouble, in sickness or time of death in his home, he turns to the church for comfort and Christian service, he is indeed a 'cheap apostate.'"

Of Coma Appears

By United Press.

MARION, Ohio, Nov. 17.—Uremitic poisoning has further complicated the case of Mrs. Warren G. Harding, ill at White Oaks Farm, near here, it was said today. This, in addition to the heart attack which she has suffered, has caused her to lose strength steadily since the latter part of last week.

For the last 48 hours she has been drowsy and has taken very little nourishment, leading to the fear that she is slowly slipping into coma.
After two unfavorable statements Suning's physician, issued a bulletin at midnight, saying she had slept comfortably up to that hour.

At 8:30 A. M. Dr. Sawyer issued the following bulletin:
"Mrs. Harding rested quietly last complications are very marked." his race with death. While the banker was rushing to her bedside from France on the Berengaria, his aged mother died at Highland Falls,

No details of the death have been received at the office of the Morgan days. Her son was notified while he was in Paris last week and set out for home at once. Radio advices of the death were sent him. He is expected

INSURGENTS IN CONGRESS WILL URGE REVISION

Of the Tax Laws at the Short Session in Opposition to President's Plans.

WANT SURPLUS DIVIDED

So People With Small Incomes Will Have Less Tax to Pay; Administration May Counter Move by Proposing a 25 Per Cent Horizontal Cut.

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1924, by The Courier.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The tactics of the Administration have left open the door to insurgent Republicans and Democrats to press for a revision of the tax laws at the December session of Congress. The Administration is making it plain that the present law should be permitted to operate and no changes undertaken until after July, 1925, but already some of the leaders who have returned any Congress will not be bound by such a policy.

Just at the moment the Administration is aware of the hostile elements in Congress and prefers to let things alone until the House and Senate come into power in December, 1925.
But the opposition to the party in Congress is sure to take the initiative instead and, although a bill drawn by a coalition of insurgent Republicans and Democrats could still be vetoed by the President and probably fail of passage over his veto, still the political consequences of such an act would weigh heavily with those responsible for blocking taxing reform.

The truth of the matter is the Administration is fearful it can accomplish very little in the reduction of high surtax rates with the present Congress. In other words, the Treasury's idea of tax reform which has been accepted by the President is that a scientific revision is one which affects the larger incomes and stimu-lates business. The insurgent Republicans and Democrats, in fact, a substantial majority in both houses, took the other viewpoint at the last session and they are going to take that same viewpoint again, namely, that government finances reveal a surplus and this should be distributed to the

Season's First Snow Accompanied By Severe Cold

The first snow storm of the season swept Connellsville Sunday. At times in the evening, when the second fall came, it resembled a blizzard.
Saturday snow fell to a depth of two to three inches on the mountains along the National pike, according to motorists. In the mountains snow still covered the ground today but in this vicinity there was no trace of "the beautiful." Last year the first snow arrived a week earlier, the initial fall being recorded on November 8.

The storm was accompanied by a sudden drop in temperature, 20 degrees, just 12 below the freezing point being registered on the official thermometer as the lowest here. Many automobilists had radiators on their machines frozen, the unforeseen cold spoil catching them unprepared.

The mercury was slow in rising today. Although the sun broke through the haze about noon it did not carry much warmth and at 11 o'clock the temperature was 30 degrees. At 3 o'clock it was still at 29 degrees.

At Indian Head at 7 o'clock this morning thermometers registered 15 degrees above zero. The snow fall there was not very heavy. It was said, but it still covered the ground at noon.

The weather forecast today asserts there will be continued cold weather tonight, with a probable abatement tomorrow. Fair weather is also included.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dizziness" and that lousy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brains and "pick up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

The marriage of Miss Grace E. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Davis of Uniontown, and Lewis C. Meachling, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Meachling of Uniontown, was solemnized Saturday evening in the home of the bride. The civil ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Hollenhead, pastor of the Great Central Baptist Church. Old-Time Oratory

When in the house of commons Sheridan made his famous speech on the resolution of the House of Commons he was offered, within 24 hours, £1,000 for the copyright. Burke's subsequent plea for the impeachment of Warren Hastings had even more dramatic effect, as we may read in the pages of Miscellany. "Handkerchiefs were pulled out, smelling bottles were handed round, hysterical sobs and screams were heard, and Mrs. Sheridan was carried out in a fit."

That was in 1788. Orators and their art—and some other things—have changed since then.—New York Herald-Tribune.

Cutting the "Gordian Knot"
This expression has its origin in the tale of Gordius, a Phrygian peasant, owner of a yoke of oxen, who became king. He dedicated his car and oxen to Zeus, and the knot of the yoke was tied so skillfully that an oracle declared that whosoever should untie it would be ruler of Asia. When Alexander the Great came to Gordium he cut the knot in two with his sword and applied the prophecy to himself.

Joint-Ease For Swollen Joints

Most remedies fail but Joint-Ease succeeds.

It's for joint troubles only, whether in ankle, knee, hip, elbow, shoulder, finger or spine—whether rheumatic or not.

Dean O'Bannion

Dean O'Bannion

Burial rites have been denied in Chicago to Dean O'Bannion, gangster, who died as he had lived—by a gun. Years of crime, Bishop Edward F. Hoban declared, had ended his connection with the Church, which, however, granted permission to bury the body in the family plot as a non-member of the church, but there were no religious services. O'Bannion, who was shot down in a flower shop he ran, had been a gunman, run runner, hijacker and thorough bad man.

On the Old Family Doctor

THE OLD TIME DOCTOR WOULD OCCASIONALLY PLAY A LITTLE CROQUET IF HE COULDN'T GET OUT OF IT.

When we look at our fine dapper doctors of today as they whizz here and there in their high-powered cars, performing marvelous operations and saving scores of human lives without the aid of whisks and plug hats and shiny frock coats, we begin to realize that we've lived through great changes. An' our doctors of today find time to keep their communities lined up an' in good health, an' also identify themselves with the civic life of their towns an' cities. An' believe us, keepin' an' with the civic life of our time an' attendin' to business too, is goin' some. We know a fine, young lung expert that made eighteen holes in 74, yesterday, an' also recounted four sets of lungs, took in a movie in the afternoon, an' collected for the community chest 'til 10 p. m. If you break a leg, or get poisoned, just you watch an' see how soon your doctor kin git you from the golf links, or a the-ater. It's amazin'! O' course if a feller's bleedin' to death an' his doctor is addressin' a commercial club meetin', or attendin' a corner stone layin', it pinks it sort o' ticklish. But such cases have been handled successfully. When Art Smiley's nephew fell off a smoke stack Dr. Mopps was on the spot in his golf clothes just as he lit. "I could have caught him," Doc said. "If they'd phoned me a minute sooner." But we don't think a doctor ought to be bothered when somebody falls two or three hundred feet, or gets his head shot off. Why should a doctor drop his civic work, or leave a $2 performance, to try to save somebody that's dead? Doctors are alius held called away right in the middle of a golf game or the-ater performance, an' then when they git where their golf the patient's table to live four or five hours fit. It don't look like. The doctors of thirty an' forty years ago did little civic work, an' cared less for the the-ater. They stuck to business an' often it took 'em nine or ten hours to drive to a case o' mumps, or a sore toe. They was very dignified an' inuuxy an' raised great bunches o' whisksers an' their plug hats wuz alius rubbed the wrong way. Their frock coats wuz too big an' they all smelled like a horse. A big, round, or tall dignified, bow-tiskered, liverly stable "smellin'" doctor of thirty-five years ago would no more swap his plug hat an' Prince Albert coat for a golf outfit than he'd jump off the court house. He might, if he couldn't git out o' it, play a little croquet, but he took himself too seriously to wear a uniform or git very far from his office.

The Paramount

"I AM THE MAN"—Showing today and tomorrow at the Paramount, features Lionel Barrymore, supported by Gaston Glass, Seena Owen and other well known screen favorites.

The appeal of this picture is based almost entirely on the tenderness of the dramatic situations and the excellent work of Mr. Barrymore, for while it affords him fine opportunities, his is not a sympathetic character, his motives and methods are not such as appeal and there is no disappointment when he meets his fate and the woman in the case is reunited with the man she gave up to war him.

Melodramatic angles have been introduced into the plot and the story is not always entirely plausible and some of the situations are a bit confusing, however, overshadowing all this is the really strong dramatic situations, which due to the ability of Mr. Barrymore are unusually effective and realistic.

It is a picture that holds your interest at all times and is filled with the conflict of emotions that makes for strong drama. Mr. Barrymore's portrayal is an excellent one and his acting is fascinating. Though he dominates the picture you feel towards him as you would toward an especially fine portrayal of a heavy role, for his role is a heavy one and it is the wife, the other man and the young woman who get the audience sympathy.

The Soisson

"THE GOLDFISH," a First National picture in which Constance Talmadge, popular star, appears in the leading role, opened today at the Soisson for a three day attraction. Constance has definitely deserted the field of costume drama and has resumed her activities as a comedienne. And her come-back is made in a comedy which is a side-splitter.

Two of the husbands are divorced, that is to say they are handed the final bowl of goldfish which gives them their divorces, and the third husband conveniently dies. Just as Constance is about to marry her fourth husband, the Duke of Mid-dlesex, a series of events occur which throw her back into the arms of her first husband and all ends happily.

Jack Mulhall is Constance's leading man. Others having prominent roles in the cast are Jean Hersholt, Za Za Pitts, Edward Connolly, William Conklin, Nellie My River, Leo White and Frank Elliott.

"Babbitt" will be shown Thursday Friday and Saturday.

The Orpheum

"MONSIEUR BEUCAIRE" The feature picture today, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Orpheum marks the return of Rudolph Valentino to the screen.

In this Booth Tarkington story, from which Forrest Halsey made the libretto, Valentino is cast as the gallant Duke de Chartres, who refuses to marry the charming Princess de Bourbon-Conti at the King's command, and as a result is compelled to flee the country. Under the assumed name of Beaucaire, messenger, he goes to England and manages to gain access to the English court without revealing his true identity. There, he captivates the beautiful Lady Mary, and incidentally inherits the deadly hatred of Lord Winteret, who finally exposes him as a common liar. A pardon from the French king recalls him to France, where he wins the love of the Princess.

The supporting cast is thoroughly up to the line work of the star. Bebe Daniels is the Princess; Lois Wilson gives a faithful portrayal of the poor, neglected queen; Lowell Sherman plays the king. All are featured with Doris Keryon.

Jack Jones will be seen in "Anastasi" on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
